EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Brian Hennessey on November 30, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 9, line 3: after "the QoS guarantee determining means selects PCR" delete "is" and insert --if--.

Claim 9, line 4: after "selects PCR, SCR, and MBS" delete "is" and insert --if--.

Please amend the title to read the following:

Network Interconnection Apparatus [and Method] for interconnecting a LAN and an ATM network using QoS adjustment

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not provide for, nor suggests providing for a network interconnection apparatus for interconnecting a LAN and an ATM network which is able to determine what QoS an ATM network ought to guarantee based on statistical information in the LAN, whereby a service category of CBR (constant bit rate) is selected if the average traffic volume between a LAN terminal and another LAN terminal multiplied by a constant (in the specification it is set at 20%, however the claim defines this value can be $1 < \alpha < 2$) is greater than the maximum traffic volume, which is the sum of frame sizes or a total number of frames within a fixed time interval and which reflects status of the LAN, and selects VBR as the service category if the average volume times α is less than or equal to the maximum traffic volume. The closest prior art of record would be Ellington, Jr. Et al (USPN ending in '569), however does not determine the particular QoS priority class based on statistics collected in the LAN. For these reasons, in conjunction with the other limitations of the claimed invention, puts this case

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
